

Is a specialty at The Dispatch office. Good printing commands attention, and why not have the best when it costs no more than the indifferent sort? Before placing your next order for printed matter please call, write or telephone for samples and prices.

WASHINGTONVILLE

Brief Items Which Chronicle the Doings of People in the Village Bordering Two Counties.

BY CLARENCE BAKER

Frank Stouffer bought a Buick six automobile last Friday.

Henry Wickline of Salem called on Mrs. Charles DeJane Saturday evening.

James Paisley of Youngstown spent Saturday and Sunday with his father, J. N. Paisley.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Miller of Columbiana were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Getz.

The Foresters Sporting Club will hold a dance in the town hall Monday evening, July 3rd.

Mrs. Alex Daley and son of Youngstown visited with friends and relatives over Sunday.

Miss Myrtle Fynes of Youngstown visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Fynes over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Denner of Youngstown spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stouffer.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hilderbrandt and baby of Salem were the guests of Mrs. Louise Vignon over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Naylor and family of West Point spent Sunday afternoon with Dick Dunn and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Taylor and children of Youngstown were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Somerville over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Carrier of Youngstown and Mrs. Sam Carrier spent Sunday with their brother, Lambert Carrier, and wife.

Miss Elsie Fisher and Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Paisley of Youngstown were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Dalrymple over Sunday.

The Foresters held a euchre party after their regular session last Friday evening. Samuel Atchison won first honors and James Atchison got the consolation prize. Another party will be held in two weeks.

A business and social meeting of the Christian Endeavor society of the Lutheran church was held at the home of Misses Grace and Marie Weikert last Friday evening. After the business was dispatched, music and games entertained the gathering.

Miss Anna Hovernale of this place and Scott Warner of Salem were united in marriage at the Methodist parsonage in Salem, at noon, last Thursday, in the absence of Rev. R. P. Moyer, Dr. W. L. Swan, pastor of the Presbyterian church, officiated. They will reside in Salem.

Miss May Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Squire Johnson and Harry Bowker, son of William Bowker of this place, were quietly married Saturday evening at the Methodist parsonage by Rev. Chalmers Cope.

The young couple left for Columbiana after the ceremony where they were entertained at the home of the bride's brother, Edwin Johnson. They will make their home in Sebring for a short time. The best wishes of their many friends are extended.

The second annual reunion of the Germantown teachers and pupils was held at the Germantown school house on Saturday, June 24th, 1916. While the attendance was large it did not equal the number at the first reunion. The program was opened by singing "America." Invocation was by I. B. Witmer. The opening address was delivered by S. D. Culp, president; address of welcome, Ivan Lehman, vice president; and A. C. Halverstad, secretary. The election of officers for the next reunion was next in order and the following officers were elected: J. L. Yoder, president; Ivan Lehman, vice president; Mrs. Wm. Weikert, recording secretary; David Klingensmith, corresponding secretary. Then followed the happy greetings and hand claspings of the many friends, while the ladies spread one of those old time picnic dinners. At 2 o'clock the meeting was again called to order by the president, S. D. Culp. Owing to the rain the afternoon program was held in the school house. After a few remarks by the president, Wm. Jenkins, a most talented tenor singer from Youngstown, rendered a few selections. The letters of those who could not attend were then read. It was learned with regret that Hon. John L. Zimmerman, who was to have delivered the address on Citizenship, would be unable to attend on account of recent illness, so the time was given to short speeches by old teachers and scholars. The first was David Snyder who taught 29 terms and who is one of the oldest teachers known in this vicinity. He spoke of many scenes which were endeared to many of his pupils. The next was Katie Eysterly Shaffer of Philadelphia who was reared here and went to the old log school house with the seats around the walls and a row of benches in the center of the building. It stood near the site of the present edifice. Her first teacher was John Slump. Mrs. Shaffer said she did most creditable work. Joe Detwiler of Seville, Medina county, gave his first day's experience in school. A song by the island quartet was next. Short talks were then made by David Klingensmith.

Robert Bertelette, the eight-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Bertelette, received a broken leg Thursday noon, when he was thrown from the automobile driven by Harry Easterly. The Bertelette boy was taken to the Salem city hospital where the bone was set, and reports are that he is getting along as well as could be expected.

By John Blackburn against Alfred Babb and others, Judge Moore rendered judgment by default for $221.90. The amount was due on a note given February 23, 1914, due two years later.

John Detwiler of Salem, Isaac Culp, Mrs. Park Holloway, Sam Culp and Fizzie Wilson of Columbiana, Mrs. Emma Snuffer of Alliance, Mrs. Minner of Canfield, John Yoder, Mrs. Emma Rohrer of Columbiana, Jonas Culp of Lewistown, I. B. Witmer of Leetonia told of some joke or happening during their school life. The evening program was dispensed with because of the rain and the absence of Hon. J. L. Zimmerman. The committee had planned to have a spelling bee for J. L. Zimmerman and his pupils. Mr. Zimmerman pronouncing the words. All departed glad to have attended and hoping to see some at the next reunion in 1918 who were unable to be present this year.

Mrs. Helen Settlesworth, aged 28, wife of Edwin Settlesworth of New Castle, Pa., died here Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of her mother, Mrs. T. R. Lewis, after a long illness. She is survived by her husband and little daughter, her mother, two sisters and two brothers. Funeral services were held in the M. E. Church here, by Rev. Chalmers Cope Wednesday afternoon with burial at Oakdale cemetery. The following of friends and relatives attended the funeral: Mrs. Harold Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Snyder of Deerfield, Mrs. Beaton and daughter, Robert Young, Mrs. Ralph Wilson and James Young, all of Sebring, Wm. Winterfield and daughter of East Palestine, Ed. Snogle and family of Springfield and Mrs. Marie Schaeffer from Alliance.

As tax paying time draws to a close the farmers are bringing their wool to town. Hon. D. O. Rutan bought 1000 pounds last Saturday at 32 and 35 cents. This is better than was paid a few years ago under high tariff.

Lightning bugs have put in their appearance and may be seen every dry night, showing the phosphorus under their wings as they pass through the air to guide the belated pedestrians.

Two families of robins roost in a cherry tree at my bedroom window. They serve me a better purpose than an alarm clock, as they sing their morning lays before eating the fruit.

The Methodist, Presbyterian and U. S. Sunday schools have had their children's day exercises, and the Reformed S. S. will have theirs next Sunday night. These exercises, like school commencements, always draw full houses.

The roads throughout Carroll county have been pretty thoroughly worked with scrapers and road drags, and now they think it pays.

Much baled hay, some of it three years old, was hauled to town last week for shipment to Pittsburgh. Much baled straw is used at the local potteries for starting fires in kilns and for packing ware.

The Carrollton B. B. team went to Sebring and defeated the pottery boys by a score of 10 to 6. One of Sebring's players got a home run.

Clark B. Firestone of Lisbon wants congressional honors to a large extent and has this county pretty well blanketed with reading matter printed and mailed at East Liverpool.

So far in its history, the Mexican war about equaled the East Youngstown riot, and is less serious than the coal miners strike in Colorado.

The boiler for the Kester coal mine at Delroy has arrived from Leetonia and another is expected in a few days, after which they will progress in earnest.

Some evangelists from the Carrollton pottery are holding Holiness meetings in Delroy, and are said to be having good success.

Fred C. Murphy, the democratic candidate for representative of Carroll county, is in Lakeside hospital, Cleveland, where he is being prepared for an operation.

Two ball games, a balloon ascension, parachute jump, fireworks and races are announced for July 4th in Carrollton. All free except the ball games.

Members of the Reformed church will sell their parsonage and build one on their church lot.

The Aid Society of the Carrollton Presbyterian church will play the "Old Maid" convention in Mechanistown on the 29th inst. The play was pulled off here to a crowded house a few weeks ago.

Wm. Arbough and wife, and J. W. Ferrell and wife, both of this village, celebrated their golden wedding last week Wednesday.

"Are scientific farming methods always practical?" was one of the questions discussed by the Petersburg grange Saturday evening. The meeting wound up with an enjoyable cakewalk.

A Salineville ball team played the Pecoson Hollow team on the Carrollton grounds last Saturday afternoon.

A young couple of love-sick swains, the boy claiming Detroit as his home and the girl from Rochester, N. Y., applied at the probate office for marriage license one day last week, but were refused on account of being non-residents.

The local strawberry crop is quite plentiful this year, and the local market consumes them all at 2 boxes for a quarter. No shipments were made to our knowledge. Everybody here likes strawberries.

"All dogs must wear a muzzle or be tied, or they will be taken in charge by the marshal" is the mandate of the Carrollton mayor. More than one dog to one owner should be taxed $5 each.

Judge W. A. Joseph of Batavia, Clermont county, held court here the past two weeks on account of the illness of Judge H. J. Eckley. Among the cases disposed of was Edwin Foster vs. Adam Beamer (brothers-in-law) for $10,000 damages. About 100 witnesses testified and the jury gave plaintiff $300, the amount of his doctor bill.

I will be pleased to see some Mahoning county farmers here at the county grange picnic July 1st.

Two heavy wind and rain storms passed around this place going northward, and a fury last Saturday afternoon. I was reminded that it might have landed in the Germantown school district and disturbed the peaceful reunion being held there at that time. I will look over the Dispatch columns for an account of their reunion and festivities.

Several Carroll county boys have enlisted for the Mexican trouble; among the number is Walter Stewart, son of our Presbyterian minister.

A 5-year-old girl of this place was severely bitten in a dozen places by a savage dog last Friday. The mother beat the dog away with a board.

Two local physicians dressed the wounds and the dog's head was sent to the Pasture Institute, Columbus, for examination.

Rev. James A. Unnan, a native of Carroll county, and pastor of the First M. E. Church at Massillon, died in St. Luke's hospital, Cleveland, last week Tuesday, aged about 57 years. Interment at his former home at Malvern Friday. He was one of the brilliant ministers of a conference. While he never was a pastor here he

Thomas Wilkinson is very ill at this writing.

Mrs. Kate Roller of Franklin Square called on friends here Saturday.

Lodge Riddle from Lisbon visited the K. of P. Lodge Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Barton and family from Akron visited relatives here over Sunday.

Mrs. Margaret Stafford of Youngstown spent Sunday with Henry Getz and wife.

Mrs. Morris Reese of Millville is visiting her mother, Mrs. John Davis, this week.

Mrs. Squire Johnson and daughter May were Columbiana visitors last Thursday.

Orville Moore was in North Lima, Greenford and Rosemont last Friday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Moore spent Sunday evening with E. E. Carnes and family in Salem.

Sam Rohrer has bought the Almira Ward property and will move into it as soon as possible.

Mrs. Alice Platt, Mary McDonald and Myrtle were Leetonia callers Wednesday evening.

The Methodist Ladies' Aid Society met at the home of Mrs. Wm. Culler last Tuesday evening.

Many people from this locality are planning to attend the big celebration in Canfield July fourth.

Allen Delrymple of Youngstown called on his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Dalrymple Sunday.

Mrs. Herbert Smedley visited her daughter, Mrs. Layton Delceter in Rochester, Pa., over Sunday.

Mrs. Raymond Smith of Leetonia visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Thorp Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Davis and little daughter of Sharon spent a few days with John Davis and family.

The Foresters' Lodge will hold their Memorial services in the Lutheran church next Sunday afternoon.

Frank Stouffer and son Howard and Harvey Baker and Harry Stouffer motored to Salem Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Carl Welch and son Gilbert and Miss Mercedes Gilbert were Youngstown visitors Wednesday.

Miss Blanche Heintzelman of Salem was the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Heintzelman over Sunday.

The ball game last Sunday between the Delroy and Shop teams from Salem and the Foresters' Team was 19-15 in favor of Salem.

Mrs. John Peterson, Mrs. Margaret Hetrick and John L. Roller of Lowellville were the guests of the Roller Sisters last Sunday.

The choir of the M. E. Church will hold a festival on the church lawn next Saturday evening, July 1st. Everyone is invited to attend.

The ball game between the Foresters and the K. of P. Knockers Wednesday evening resulted in a 7 to 4 victory for the Foresters.

Miss Lillian Breyer of Cleveland and Samuel Lindsey of Columbiana had supper with Mrs. Mary Parry and son Jack Monday evening.

Miss Lillian Senior, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Senior of this place and Mrs. Hinchcliff of Sebring were united in marriage Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Muriel McIntosh left for Pittsburgh Monday morning for a few days visit. She will also visit her aunt, Mrs. Jean Wilson, at Salsburg for a few days.

An armored automobile with three guardsmen from Michigan, on their way to Washington, D. C., attracted considerable attention in the village Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert DeJane and family and Mr. and Mrs. Charles DeJane responded to Mr. and Mrs. DeJane to relatives Wednesday afternoon. At Youngstown they were joined by Chas. DeJane.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stouffer and son Howard, Misses Alice Platt and Myrtle Baker motored to Youngstown Monday evening to attend the reunion of the Foresters' Lodge.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Denner, given in honor of the Pythian Sisters of Youngstown. The hostess served a delicious lunch.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Boston entertained a hay load of young people from Salem Monday evening. The affair was given by Misses Jennie and Edith Lentz of Salem in honor of their guest, Miss Helen Mills, of Columbus. The young people were entertained with games and luncheon.

The following teachers were held by Salem township school board last Thursday evening for the ensuing year: No. 1, Mrs. Harry Holland; No. 2, Archie Holland; No. 3, Ross Davis; No. 4, David Geiger; No. 5, Mrs. Winifred Baker; No. 6, Miss Elizabeth Derringer; No. 7, Miss Lois Boston.

Robert Bertelette, the eight-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Bertelette, received a broken leg Thursday noon, when he was thrown from the automobile driven by Harry Easterly. The Bertelette boy was taken to the Salem city hospital where the bone was set, and reports are that he is getting along as well as could be expected.

By John Blackburn against Alfred Babb and others, Judge Moore rendered judgment by default for $221.90. The amount was due on a note given February 23, 1914, due two years later.

John Detwiler of Salem, Isaac Culp, Mrs. Park Holloway, Sam Culp and Fizzie Wilson of Columbiana, Mrs. Emma Snuffer of Alliance, Mrs. Minner of Canfield, John Yoder, Mrs. Emma Rohrer of Columbiana, Jonas Culp of Lewistown, I. B. Witmer of Leetonia told of some joke or happening during their school life. The evening program was dispensed with because of the rain and the absence of Hon. J. L. Zimmerman. The committee had planned to have a spelling bee for J. L. Zimmerman and his pupils. Mr. Zimmerman pronouncing the words. All departed glad to have attended and hoping to see some at the next reunion in 1918 who were unable to be present this year.

Mrs. Helen Settlesworth, aged 28, wife of Edwin Settlesworth of New Castle, Pa., died here Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of her mother, Mrs. T. R. Lewis, after a long illness. She is survived by her husband and little daughter, her mother, two sisters and two brothers. Funeral services were held in the M. E. Church here, by Rev. Chalmers Cope Wednesday afternoon with burial at Oakdale cemetery. The following of friends and relatives attended the funeral: Mrs. Harold Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Snyder of Deerfield, Mrs. Beaton and daughter, Robert Young, Mrs. Ralph Wilson and James Young, all of Sebring, Wm. Winterfield and daughter of East Palestine, Ed. Snogle and family of Springfield and Mrs. Marie Schaeffer from Alliance.

As tax paying time draws to a close the farmers are bringing their wool to town. Hon. D. O. Rutan bought 1000 pounds last Saturday at 32 and 35 cents. This is better than was paid a few years ago under high tariff.

Lightning bugs have put in their appearance and may be seen every dry night, showing the phosphorus under their wings as they pass through the air to guide the belated pedestrians.

Two families of robins roost in a cherry tree at my bedroom window. They serve me a better purpose than an alarm clock, as they sing their morning lays before eating the fruit.

The Methodist, Presbyterian and U. S. Sunday schools have had their children's day exercises, and the Reformed S. S. will have theirs next Sunday night. These exercises, like school commencements, always draw full houses.

The roads throughout Carroll county have been pretty thoroughly worked with scrapers and road drags, and now they think it pays.

Much baled hay, some of it three years old, was hauled to town last week for shipment to Pittsburgh. Much baled straw is used at the local potteries for starting fires in kilns and for packing ware.

The Carrollton B. B. team went to Sebring and defeated the pottery boys by a score of 10 to 6. One of Sebring's players got a home run.

Clark B. Firestone of Lisbon wants congressional honors to a large extent and has this county pretty well blanketed with reading matter printed and mailed at East Liverpool.

So far in its history, the Mexican war about equaled the East Youngstown riot, and is less serious than the coal miners strike in Colorado.

The boiler for the Kester coal mine at Delroy has arrived from Leetonia and another is expected in a few days, after which they will progress in earnest.

Some evangelists from the Carrollton pottery are holding Holiness meetings in Delroy, and are said to be having good success.

Fred C. Murphy, the democratic candidate for representative of Carroll county, is in Lakeside hospital, Cleveland, where he is being prepared for an operation.

Two ball games, a balloon ascension, parachute jump, fireworks and races are announced for July 4th in Carrollton. All free except the ball games.

Members of the Reformed church will sell their parsonage and build one on their church lot.

The Aid Society of the Carrollton Presbyterian church will play the "Old Maid" convention in Mechanistown on the 29th inst. The play was pulled off here to a crowded house a few weeks ago.

Wm. Arbough and wife, and J. W. Ferrell and wife, both of this village, celebrated their golden wedding last week Wednesday.

"Are scientific farming methods always practical?" was one of the questions discussed by the Petersburg grange Saturday evening. The meeting wound up with an enjoyable cakewalk.

A Salineville ball team played the Pecoson Hollow team on the Carrollton grounds last Saturday afternoon.

A young couple of love-sick swains, the boy claiming Detroit as his home and the girl from Rochester, N. Y., applied at the probate office for marriage license one day last week, but were refused on account of being non-residents.

The local strawberry crop is quite plentiful this year, and the local market consumes them all at 2 boxes for a quarter. No shipments were made to our knowledge. Everybody here likes strawberries.

"All dogs must wear a muzzle or be tied, or they will be taken in charge by the marshal" is the mandate of the Carrollton mayor. More than one dog to one owner should be taxed $5 each.

Judge W. A. Joseph of Batavia, Clermont county, held court here the past two weeks on account of the illness of Judge H. J. Eckley. Among the cases disposed of was Edwin Foster vs. Adam Beamer (brothers-in-law) for $10,000 damages. About 100 witnesses testified and the jury gave plaintiff $300, the amount of his doctor bill.

I will be pleased to see some Mahoning county farmers here at the county grange picnic July 1st.

Two heavy wind and rain storms passed around this place going northward, and a fury last Saturday afternoon. I was reminded that it might have landed in the Germantown school district and disturbed the peaceful reunion being held there at that time. I will look over the Dispatch columns for an account of their reunion and festivities.

illness. She is survived by her husband and little daughter, her mother, two sisters and two brothers. Funeral services were held in the M. E. Church here, by Rev. Chalmers Cope Wednesday afternoon with burial at Oakdale cemetery. The following of friends and relatives attended the funeral: Mrs. Harold Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Snyder of Deerfield, Mrs. Beaton and daughter, Robert Young, Mrs. Ralph Wilson and James Young, all of Sebring, Wm. Winterfield and daughter of East Palestine, Ed. Snogle and family of Springfield and Mrs. Marie Schaeffer from Alliance.

As tax paying time draws to a close the farmers are bringing their wool to town. Hon. D. O. Rutan bought 1000 pounds last Saturday at 32 and 35 cents. This is better than was paid a few years ago under high tariff.

Lightning bugs have put in their appearance and may be seen every dry night, showing the phosphorus under their wings as they pass through the air to guide the belated pedestrians.

Two families of robins roost in a cherry tree at my bedroom window. They serve me a better purpose than an alarm clock, as they sing their morning lays before eating the fruit.

The Methodist, Presbyterian and U. S. Sunday schools have had their children's day exercises, and the Reformed S. S. will have theirs next Sunday night. These exercises, like school commencements, always draw full houses.

The roads throughout Carroll county have been pretty thoroughly worked with scrapers and road drags, and now they think it pays.

Much baled hay, some of it three years old, was hauled to town last week for shipment to Pittsburgh. Much baled straw is used at the local potteries for starting fires in kilns and for packing ware.

The Carrollton B. B. team went to Sebring and defeated the pottery boys by a score of 10 to 6. One of Sebring's players got a home run.

Clark B. Firestone of Lisbon wants congressional honors to a large extent and has this county pretty well blanketed with reading matter printed and mailed at East Liverpool.

So far in its history, the Mexican war about equaled the East Youngstown riot, and is less serious than the coal miners strike in Colorado.

The boiler for the Kester coal mine at Delroy has arrived from Leetonia and another is expected in a few days, after which they will progress in earnest.

Some evangelists from the Carrollton pottery are holding Holiness meetings in Delroy, and are said to be having good success.

Fred C. Murphy, the democratic candidate for representative of Carroll county, is in Lakeside hospital, Cleveland, where he is being prepared for an operation.

Two ball games, a balloon ascension, parachute jump, fireworks and races are announced for July 4th in Carrollton. All free except the ball games.

Members of the Reformed church will sell their parsonage and build one on their church lot.

The Aid Society of the Carrollton Presbyterian church will play the "Old Maid" convention in Mechanistown on the 29th inst. The play was pulled off here to a crowded house a few weeks ago.

Wm. Arbough and wife, and J. W. Ferrell and wife, both of this village, celebrated their golden wedding last week Wednesday.

"Are scientific farming methods always practical?" was one of the questions discussed by the Petersburg grange Saturday evening. The meeting wound up with an enjoyable cakewalk.

A Salineville ball team played the Pecoson Hollow team on the Carrollton grounds last Saturday afternoon.

A young couple of love-sick swains, the boy claiming Detroit as his home and the girl from Rochester, N. Y., applied at the probate office for marriage license one day last week, but were refused on account of being non-residents.

The local strawberry crop is quite plentiful this year, and the local market consumes them all at 2 boxes for a quarter. No shipments were made to our knowledge. Everybody here likes strawberries.

"All dogs must wear a muzzle or be tied, or they will be taken in charge by the marshal" is the mandate of the Carrollton mayor. More than one dog to one owner should be taxed $5 each.

Judge W. A. Joseph of Batavia, Clermont county, held court here the past two weeks on account of the illness of Judge H. J. Eckley. Among the cases disposed of was Edwin Foster vs. Adam Beamer (brothers-in-law) for $10,000 damages. About 100 witnesses testified and the jury gave plaintiff $300, the amount of his doctor bill.

I will be pleased to see some Mahoning county farmers here at the county grange picnic July 1st.

Two heavy wind and rain storms passed around this place going northward, and a fury last Saturday afternoon. I was reminded that it might have landed in the Germantown school district and disturbed the peaceful reunion being held there at that time. I will look over the Dispatch columns for an account of their reunion and festivities.

Several Carroll county boys have enlisted for the Mexican trouble; among the number is Walter Stewart, son of our Presbyterian minister.

A 5-year-old girl of this place was severely bitten in a dozen places by a savage dog last Friday. The mother beat the dog away with a board.

Two local physicians dressed the wounds and the dog's head was sent to the Pasture Institute, Columbus, for examination.

Rev. James A. Unnan, a native of Carroll county, and pastor of the First M. E. Church at Massillon, died in St. Luke's hospital, Cleveland, last week Tuesday, aged about 57 years. Interment at his former home at Malvern Friday. He was one of the brilliant ministers of a conference. While he never was a pastor here he illness. She is survived by her husband and little daughter, her mother, two sisters and two brothers. Funeral services were held in the M. E. Church here, by Rev. Chalmers Cope Wednesday afternoon with burial at Oakdale cemetery. The following of friends and relatives attended the funeral: Mrs. Harold Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Snyder of Deerfield, Mrs. Beaton and daughter, Robert Young, Mrs. Ralph Wilson and James Young, all of Sebring, Wm. Winterfield and daughter of East Palestine, Ed. Snogle and family of Springfield and Mrs. Marie Schaeffer from Alliance.

As tax paying time draws to a close the farmers are bringing their wool to town. Hon. D. O. Rutan bought 1000 pounds last Saturday at 32 and 35 cents. This is better than was paid a few years ago under high tariff.

Lightning bugs have put in their appearance and may be seen every dry night, showing the phosphorus under their wings as they pass through the air to guide the belated pedestrians.

Two families of robins roost in a cherry tree at my bedroom window. They serve me a better purpose than an alarm clock, as they sing their morning lays before eating the fruit.

The Methodist, Presbyterian and U. S. Sunday schools have had their children's day exercises, and the Reformed S. S. will have theirs next Sunday night. These exercises, like school commencements, always draw full houses.

The roads throughout Carroll county have been pretty thoroughly worked with scrapers and road drags, and now they think it pays.

Much baled hay, some of it three years old, was hauled to town last week for shipment to Pittsburgh. Much baled straw is used at the local potteries for starting fires in kilns and for packing ware.

The Carrollton B. B. team went to Sebring and defeated the pottery boys by a score of 10 to 6. One of Sebring's players got a home run.

Clark B. Firestone of Lisbon wants congressional honors to a large extent and has this county pretty well blanketed with reading matter printed and mailed at East Liverpool.